Unleashed - Women's Bible Study Leader Guide HEATHER M. DIXON 2022-

08-16 Embrace your identity and gifts to fulfill your God-given purpose with Unleashed, a study of the Gospel of John by Heather M. Dixon. Wonderfully made. Lavishly loved. These aren't just pretty words lifted from the pages of Scripture. They were written about us. God created each of us to serve as His ambassador to the world. But often we feel unworthy or unqualified, thinking we have nothing to offer. Embracing our identity in Christ allows us to release what is holding us back and run with wild abandon toward God's purpose for our lives--to love God and love our neighbor with all that we are. In Unleashed: Living God's Purpose for Your Life with Abandon, a six-week study of the Gospel of John by Heather M. Dixon, you will explore six characters from the Gospel of John who were set free by Jesus from what hindered them and unleashed into the world with renewed purpose and direction. By exploring their encounters with Jesus alongside passages that define who you are in Him, you too will be freed from doubt and insecurity about who God made you to be, what God has designed you to do, and how God has uniquely gifted you to fulfill his purpose of love in your life. Unleashed guides you through the practice of letting go of six thoughts that hinder you. 1. I don't have the confidence I need for that (Nicodemus) 2. I have nothing to offer (the woman at the well) 3. I am hindered by my limitations (the disabled man at the pool of Bethesda) 4. I can't make a difference (the blind man) 5. I am not qualified (Peter) 6. Everyone else is already doing it (Mary Magdalene) Get ready to root yourself in your identity as a beloved child of God and gain the confidence to love well simply by being yourself. You were made to be unleashed!

The Work of a Disciple: Living Like Jesus Don Cousins 2016-10-11 The Walking with God series was developed as the curriculum for small groups at Willow Creek Community Church in South Barrington, Illinois. Since its release in 1992, it has been used by churches and small groups to help raise up devoted disciples of Christ. Group members who work through the program will lay a solid foundation for a lifelong walk with God. While small groups may be formed for a variety of purposes, the goal of this curriculum is for groups to produce disciples—fully devoted followers of Christ—by studying God's Word in community. To this end, the goal of the study is to produce disciples who walk with God, have a personal relationship with Jesus, and live in step with the Holy Spirit. It is also to produce believers who live the Word in all areas of life and contribute to the work that God is doing in the local church. Ultimately, the goal is to develop believers who impact the world and are prepared and eager to spread the good news of Christ to others. This material will help develop these attributes in group members. Each lesson includes group Bible study and discussion questions in addition to devotions, reflections, and personal study for use by individuals between the group sessions.

Determined - Women's Bible Study Leader Guide Heather M. Dixon 2019-04-02 LEADER GUIDE - Imagine waking up every single day convinced that the twenty-four hours ahead of you are a precious gift to be used wisely. Now imagine that you know exactly how to spend them to be a force for God's good. All too often we wander through life without appreciating the gift of every moment we've been given. The result? An unsatisfying life, missed opportunities to experience the joy of being in sync with God, and days marked with apathy instead of passion. Our time on earth is measured. We should want to make every moment count—not only because we aren't guaranteed the next one, but also because this is exactly how our Savior spent His time here. How, then, do we walk out unwavering joy-filled faith every day, determined to let go of the things that keep us from experiencing abundant life and fulfilling the plans God has for us? The answers are found in following the footsteps of the One who lived fully, because He was determined that we might do the same. In this six-week study of Luke, we will follow the life and ministry of Jesus as we consider the choices He made on His way to the cross. We'll intimately connect with a Savior who remained laser-focused on His mission to love the world. In return, we'll receive a model for intentional living that we can replicate to ensure we are living each day to the fullest and making a difference for God's kingdom. And together we'll determine to embrace the abundant life we are promised in Jesus. It's time to stop wandering and start living!

holiness is a word that we hear very little and see in action even less. Sadly many people, including some Christians, don't take God's command to be holy seriously enough and non-Christians could care less about this vital character quality. As Christian women, you should strive daily to display holiness in your speech, attitude and conduct. This Study will assist you in reaching that spiritual goal!

The study ends with the story of Joseph, who decided to stop the cycle of previous generations, offering forgiveness and grace to his brothers. Through these stories of Genesis, New Testament teaching about family, and stories of contemporary families changed and used by God, this study shows us how God can use our own imperfect families to bring blessing in a hurting and broken world. The Leader Guide contains six session plan outlines,

The Savvy Couple's Guide to Marrying After 35 Kay Marshall Strom 2009-09-20 People are waiting longer to get married. They see the distinct advantages of remaining footloose for a while, of having time to set up a solo household, of traveling and having adventures before they settle down, of getting established in a career. That means that when they marry, merging their two lives has greater complexity. Remarriage following divorce or death of a spouse is also more common as people live longer. And sobering as the fact may be, second marriages have a greater failure rate than first marriages. It's not surprising, then, that many couples thirty-five and older are looking for savvy advice about the particular issues they face in marrying at this stage of their lives. Kay Marshall Strom and Dan Kline have the wisdom of their own experience to offer. They found each other after first marriages that ended in death and divorce. Further help comes from their interviews with a wide range of couples who married for the first or second time, varying in age from their mid-thirties to their late-eighties. This book deals with the practical, emotional and spiritual elements of building a life together, taking up issues from what to do with all your stuff to parenting a blended family, from handling two careers to fighting fairly. In this "savvy couple's guide" you'll find wise counsel for living happily even after.

Woe to the Women--the Bible Tells Me So Annie Laurie Gaylor 2004 WOE TO THE WOMEN takes up where Elizabeth Cady Stanton's THE WOMAN'S BIBLE left off. In these critical days when fundamentalists are trying to unite church and state, it behooves thoughtful women and men to "know thine enemy." Lucidly argued, concise and thorough, WOE TO THE WOMEN documents the bible's punitive, antediluvian rules and attitudes toward women. WOE TO THE WOMEN exposes the bible's harmful stereotypes about women as sin-inciting temptresses and their treatment as male property. This exposé examines biblical teachings about women's "nature," prostitution, sexual assault and incest, so-called uncleanness, marriage, motherhood, divorce and adultery, grooming, abortion, and homosexuality, as well as "macho" standards for men. Delightfully illustrated by Alma Cuebas, it contains a valuable compendium of more than 200 sexist bible passages. WOE TO THE WOMEN is an essential guide for the reader who is too busy (or too non-masochistic) to study the bible. WOE TO THE WOMEN is a timely warning that the bible is a handbook for the subjugation of women, and that the only true barrier standing between it and women is a secular government.

Amazingly Single Tamara L. Smith 2011-05-07 This book provides information for single women on living saved, single, sanctified, satisfied lives all while waiting patiently on God to allow them to be found by their husband. The Bible is clear in Proverbs 18:22; the man is supposed to find his wife. The Bible does not say women should propose marriage so they can live happily ever after. We have to follow the entire Word of God not just the parts of the Bible that fit our lifestyles. Additionally the book explains in detail the fact that everyone will not get married because there were several single individuals in the Bible and this reality will remain true for some of us now. I realized there are so many single women wasting time trying to find a man when that is not what we are supposed to be doing. God allows us to be found by the man he has ordained for us to be married to. This is an important God given fact but the Women and Feminist Movements of the 1960s and 1970s have caused some of us to lose sight on what the word of God says about marriage. The movements helped us accomplish a lot as women and for that we are truly thankful but we cannot discount God's word in the process of becoming the woman we are supposed to be. We can remain strong, pursue job opportunities and still be saved by God's grace. Back cover text: Ladies, the Bible is clear in Proverbs 18:22 "He that finds a wife; finds a good thing and finds favor from the Lord." It does not read she that finds a husband will live happily ever after; therefore women are not supposed to look for their husbands because God gave men the task of looking for us; not the other way around. Amazingly Single includes important information on living a single, saved, sanctified, satisfied life while patiently waiting on God. We cannot apply certain parts of the Bible to our lives; we have to follow the whole word of God. The Christ-Centered Woman - Women's Bible Study Participant Book Kimberly Dunnam Reisman 2013-08-06 In this six-week in-depth Bible study, Kimberly Dunnam Reisman helps women to find balance at every age and stage of life. Confronting the daily chaos of competing demands from a new perspective, she asks not “How do I juggle my responsibilities?” but “How do I make choices that reflect my relationship with Christ and his direction for my life?” Using chapter three of the Apostle Paul’s letter to the Ephesians as a biblical foundation, the study identifies barriers to balanced living and explores what the Bible teaches about Christ-centered living. Women will discover how being centered in the Savior can help us contemplate, sort, and prioritize our callings. Through it all, we come to experience Christ as Rock, Solace, and Guide and find him the calm center from which we can wisely navigate the responsibilities of our lives. The Participant Book guides women in a biblical study of Christ-centered living, using Ephesians 3 as a foundational framework. Five devotional readings are provided for each week. The interactive format includes space for responding to questions and recording personal reflections. Other components for the Bible study, available separately, include a Participant Workbook, Leader Guide, DVD with six 21-26 minute sessions featuring closed captioning, and boxed Leader Kit.

Fierce - Women's Bible Study Leader Guide Jennifer Cowart 2019-09-03

Learn from the fierce women of God who changed the world. The word fierce is trendy. It is used to describe women who are extreme athletes, high-level executives, or supermodels. Women at the top of their game. But what about the rest of us? Can we be fierce? Absolutely! In fact, women like us have been changing the world for thousands of years—many who received little fanfare yet lived fiercely anyway. In this six-week study we will look at lesser-known female characters in the Bible and the ways they changed the world by living into God's calling, including: The midwives of Egypt (Shiphrah and Puah), who made hard decisions in the face of evil Deborah, who was an unlikely and powerful leader Naaman's slave girl, who bravely points others to God's healing power The Woman at the Well, who boldly repented and shared her faith Lois and Eunice, who parented with intentionality and effectiveness

Dorcas, who showed kindness to those in need. As we explore their lives, we will discover how we too can live into our callings, honor the Lord, and even change the world through our courage, faithfulness, and obedience. Bible Study Features: A six-week study of lesser-known female characters in the Bible. Helps women consider how they can be fierce women of God.

Workbook includes five devotional lessons for every week of study. Each DVD segment features an opening “fierce” vignette followed by engaging Bible teaching with practical life application. Other components for the Bible study, available separately, include a Participant Workbook and DVD.

Handbook of Women Biblical Interpreters Marion Ann Taylor 2012-10-01 The history of women interpreters of the Bible is a neglected area of study. Marion Taylor presents a one-volume reference tool that introduces readers to a wide array of women interpreters of the Bible from the entire history of Christianity. Her research has implications for understanding biblical interpretation--especially the history of interpretation--and influencing contemporary study of women and the Bible. Contributions by 130 top scholars introduce foremothers of the faith who address issues of interpretation that continue to be relevant to faith communities today, such as women's roles in the church and synagogue and the idea of religious feminism. Women's interpretations also raise awareness about differences in the ways women and men may read the Scriptures in light of differences in their life experiences. This handbook will prove useful to ministers as well as to students of the Bible, who will be inspired, provoked, and challenged by the women introduced here. The volume will also provide a foundation for further detailed research and analysis. Interpreters include Elizabeth Rice Achtemeier, Saint Birgitta of Sweden, Catherine Mumford Booth, Anne Bradstreet, Catherine of Siena, Clare of Assisi, Egeria, Elizabeth I, Hildegard, Julian of Norwich, Thérèse of Lisieux, Marcella, Henrietta C. Mears, Florence Nightingale, Phoebe Palmer, Faltonia Betitia Proba, Pandita Ramabai, Christina Georgina Rossetti, Dorothy Leigh Sayers, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Harriet Beecher Stowe, St. Teresa of Avila, Sojourner Truth, and Susanna Wesley.
