Women Deacons and Deaconesses Charles W. Deweese 2005 Divided opinion on the topic of this book has caused controversy in Baptist history and life. Most Baptist individuals and churches have strongly opposed women deacons. Some Baptist associations have even disfellowshipped churches that have approved women deacons. And women in general have been suppressed by many recent actions of the Southern Baptist Convention, thereby affecting women deacons. However, thousands of Baptist churches include women in their deacon bodies and find that they make invaluable contributions. The book presents arguments on both sides of the topic, but lands squarely in support of women deacons.

International Handbook of Child Care Policies and Programs Moncrieff Cochran 1993 This reference offers a comprehensive overview of public policies and programs related to child care in Africa, Asia, Latin America, Oceania, Europe, and North America. The volume begins with an introductory essay that discusses trends and developments in child care around the world. The chapters that follow discuss policies and programs in 29 countries representing a wide range of social, economic, political, and geographic conditions. The chapters are arranged in alphabetical order, and each discusses the historical, cultural, and ideological contexts in which child care policies and programs are implemented. A final chapter synthesizes the information and makes crossnational comparisons. The work concludes with appendices of demographic data, maternity and parental leave policies, along with a general bibliography of current works for further reading.

War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts 2022-01-13 Since the 1991-2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone, the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women's involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment. This is in marked contrast to other post-conflict countries, which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office, increased the representation of women in leadership positions, and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women's rights. Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines, this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women's political, economic and social development in the country. In drawing on a diverse array of case studies – from health to education, refugees to international donors – the contradictions, successes and challenges of women's lives in a post-conflict environment are revealed, making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development.

Organic Ministry to Women Sue Edwards 2019-09-24 With Millennial and Generation Z women coming of age in our churches and society, new approaches to women's ministry are required to meet their distinct needs. Drawing on decades of experience ministering to women, authors Sue Edwards and Kelley Mathews explain how their Transformation Model can energize women's ministry for all generations and in multiple settings. Individual chapters are devoted to applying the Model, which is centered on Scripture and building relationships, to ministry in the local church, the college campus, and cross-culturally in missions. Organic Ministry to Women is packed with practical advice and real-life illustrations of how to implement the principles of the Transformation Model. Edwards and Mathews also profile numerous leading women's ministers like Jen Wilkin, Priscilla Shirer, and Jackie Hill-Perry, drawing wisdom and inspiration from their lives and ministries. Helpful appendixes provide additional resources including sample job descriptions for ministry leaders, a Bible study lesson, and a training guide for small group leaders. A revised and expanded version of New Doors in Ministry to Women, this updated edition takes into account the latest cultural and ministry trends and is an invaluable resource for current and future leaders in ministry to women.

Reconstructing Women's Wartime Lives Penny Summerfield 1998 RECONSTRUCTING WOMEN'S WARTIME LIVES is about the effects of the Second War War on women's sense of themselves. At the heart of the book is the dichotomy of women who heroically held men's jobs and women who stoically endured the pressures and privations of war at home. These personal accounts reveal the often unexpected ways in which women reconstructed their wartime lives.

Understanding The Prophetic Ashish Raichur 2010-03-01 God is restoring the prophetic ministry in the Church today. From believers learning how to flow in the gift of prophecy, to men and women being raised up as ministry gift prophets, there is a reviving of prophetic ministry in the Body of Christ all over the world. The prophetic is not only about hearing and speaking, it is about hearing and doing what God wants done here on earth. God is raising up prophetic believers who not only serve within the local church, but also prophetic believers who are affecting the marketplace through practical ideas and strategies they have received from God. God is raising up prophets like Joseph and Daniel who will represent Him and be His prophetic voice in the high places of the earth today. This training manual is designed to equip believers, stir up the prophetic in them and enable them to develop a strong prophetic ministry in whatever vocation they may be. Bodies, Politics, and African Healing Stacey A. Langwick 2011-06-23 This subtle and powerful ethnography examines African healing and its relationship to medical science. Stacey A. Langwick investigates the practices of healers in Tanzania who confront the most intractable illnesses in the region, including AIDS and malaria. She reveals how healers generate new therapies and shape the bodies of their patients as they address devils and parasites, anti-witchcraft medicine, and child immunization. Transcending the dualisms between tradition and science, culture and nature, belief and knowledge, Langwick tells a new story about the materiality of healing and postcolonial politics. This important work bridges postcolonial theory, science, public health, and anthropology.

A Call to Excellence Verna Mazak 2016 The growth of women in leadership within the local church is at an all-time high. These women face tremendous obstacles as they seek to lead the twenty-first century church. This thesis investigates the role of African American women in the Black Baptist church to identify skills necessary for successful leadership within the denomination. Going beyond analysis and exploration, it answers the question of how to develop a training and mentorship program specifically designed to prepare African-American women for excellence in leadership. A survey of fifty church staff and members of various Black Baptist churches was conducted to determine the perspective and experiences of women in leadership. Interviews with three women serving as pastors within the Black Baptist church facilitated in the gathering of key data. This information was used to format a training and mentoring manual that effectively prepare African American women for leadership in the Black Baptist church.

The Most Expensive Box of Chocolate in the World Vernon Sessoms, Jr. 2020-04-15 This training manual is written for African American (Hebrew) woman who have a burning desire to break generational the curses on the African American family. Because of the generational impact of slavery inflicted on us through Transatlantic Slave Trade devastating the African American family. The goal of this book is to write a training manual using the book of Proverbs as a template of instruction showing notable examples of Hebrew women who developed the persistent determination to enter into the throne room of God's heart. The purpose of this book is to use it as a Christian discipleship manual enabling African American (Hebrew) Christian women to rebuild a loving, healthy relationship with the African American (Hebrew) men. I chose the book of Proverbs chapter 31 (10-31) dealing with the virtuous women. This training manual is consistent with the core values of my ministry Every Man Pastors His Own House. Every (Hebrew) Christian woman reading this book is called by Yahweh and his son Jesus Christ to rebuild the fragmented relationship between Christian Hebrew men and women through Christian discipleship. This training manual will give her practical ways to accomplish this enormous task of rebuilding the fragmented relationship between Christian Hebrew men and women. I see the re-gathering the House of Judah and the House of Israel. This re-gathering will involve the rebuilding of the fragmented relationship between the Christian Hebrew men and women while strengthening the world-wide body of Jesus Christ. This training manual can be used by any Christian (Hebrew) women who desire to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. No Christian Hebrew woman will be able to enter into the throne room of God's heart until she becomes a disciple of Jesus Christ.

Connecting Women Linda Lesniewski 2007-11-01 Women's ministry today addresses the needs of women in all walks and stages of life. Drawing on her years of church staff experience, Linda Lesniewski describes the changing and varied needs of women and encourages Christian women to become involved in leadership. The book emphasizes the biblical foundation of women's ministry and explores the call of God to minister to women. Moving to more practical issues, it discusses leadership training, following church protocol, communication, and ways to make ministry fresh, creative, and vital. Whether a veteran looking for inspiration and new ideas or a person exploring God's direction in life, any woman can benefit from the wealth of information and inspiration found in Connecting Women.

Spiritual Warfare: Setting Captives FREE B.y. Stuart, Ph.d 2010-04-18 One of the situations that the Christian counselor may face in his ministry is spiritual warfare. At the initial encounter, the symptoms may not appear to be a satanic situation. The only way you the counselor might be able to distinguish signs from any other condition, is through the Holy Spirit. Spiritual warfare has become an increasingly interesting topic for both secular researchers and religious believers alike. For this reason, the understanding of satanic activities should be one of the major subject matter the individual who is interested in being a Christian Counselor should research. He should investigate, analyze and gain knowledge in preparation for the unlikely event he encounters this situation.
